FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, BANGALORE.

Circular No. 464—B ii, dated 7th October 1947.

To

All Drawing Officers in Bangalore.

Subject:—Presentation of Salary and Establishment Bills payable in Bangalore five days before the last working day of each month.

According to Article 45, Mysore Civil Account Code, Volume I, Salary and Establishment Bills payable in Bangalore are at present being received three days before the last working day of each month to which they relate, to facilitate audit and for arranging payment on the due dates. With a view to secure an even flow of work and to minimise delays in payment of Salary Bills on the due date, it is considered necessary to receive such bills five days before the last working day of each month. The Gazetted Officers and Drawing Officers whose Salary and Establishment Bills are payable in Bangalore are therefore requested to present the bills in future to the concerned Audit Offices five days before the last working day of each month. The bills for October 1947 payable on 1st November 1947 may accordingly be presented for audit five days before the last working day of the month.
